Dear Dave:

This letter is long overdue, but I have been wanting to write to you to say how much Steinway & Sons, and all of us at Steinway Hall, in particular, have appreciated the relationship between you and our firm. For the past many years you have been highly respected by our sales staff, by our own in-house service staff as well as by many of our customers for your technical expertise in your work on Steinway pianos.

I think that equal in importance to your technical ability is the high regard you obviously have for the Steinway piano. This is clearly evident in the way you speak of the piano and the way you have dealt with our customers.

You have heard me say these things in person, but I think they should be said in writing, also.

I look forward to seeing you the next time you are in the city.

Sincerely yours,

Gene Inman
Vice President
General Manager, Steinway Hall
